

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Karen Schreyer

PHR, Ph.D.

Karen Schreyer is System Director, Talent Management at KentuckyOne Health, Catholic Health Initiatives (CHI). Her focus is on employee development and strengthening pipelines of leadership.

Prior to CHI, Karen was an associate professor at the University of Cincinnati. She began her career with General Electric and spent thirteen years with Johnson & Johnson in HR before transitioning to organizational development and education. She has served on Boards for NKY SHRM and Greater Cincinnati HRIS.

Karen currently serves on the WLA Board and a committee member for Grant County Northern Kentucky University.

Schreyer earned a PhD in Human and Organizational Systems from the Fielding Institute, a Masters in Education from Xavier University, and an undergraduate degree from the University of Cincinnati. She is certified in various assessments including MBTI, DiSC, Predictive Index and change management methodologies.

Karen and her husband enjoy family time with their young-adult children and grandchildren on Williamstown Lake in Kentucky. She is an avid runner and yoga enthusiast and is passionate about animal rights.